Dear Sir / Madam,

As noted in my enclosed resume, I worked as a sales assistant at Bershka, and then worked as an editor for a Japanese fashion magazine called "NYLON JAPAN". I also majored in fashion at university, and I was interested in becoming a sales assistant for your shop because I wanted to make use of my career and knowledge in my work. Immediately after moving from Japan to London, I went shopping at the Brick Lane store, where I strongly felt that this was the place I would love to work.

At NYLON JAPAN, where I worked for 6 years, I was mainly in charge of researching fashion trends, proposing fashion styling and hair&make-up, planning fashion and beauty stories, and writing. I love talking to people, and when I was working at Bershka, I always communicated well with the staff which enhanced the smooth running of the store, and I actively talked to customers and responded to their requests. Furthermore, I majored in men's fashion at university, and I became very interested in London's fashion culture. I also love styling secondhand clothes, and I always wanted to work at a secondhand clothing store. My variety of experience will be a great help in adapting myself to this job quickly. I'd love to use my skills to work at Rokit.

Please find my resume attached. I am looking forward to hearing from you.

Your sincerely,

Kaho Fukuda
